WEST GYM AT S. T. C. HAS DISPLAY OF FARM PRODUCTS

LOTS OF CORN IN PLACE

Bread, Preserves, Vegetables, Fancy Work, Dolls; All Make the Room Worth Seeing

Visitors to the State Teachers College the rest of the week should make it a point to visit the west gymnasium, where is on display the show of the Nodaway County Agricultural and Domestice Science Association, which is holding its annual affair here during the meeting of the Northwest Missouri Teachers Association.

All day yesterday and today County Superintendent Bert Cooper and his assistants have been busy accepting and arranging the exhibits, which come from the boys and girls of the county schools who are members of the association and from farmers over this and adjoining counties who are entered in the general classes and in the farmers and corn breeders classes.

Long tables fill the gymnasium. Carefully arranged on these are the exhibits, which range from loaves of bread and cans of preserves to row after row of corn, white and red. There are vegetables ,towels, doilies, seeds—everything that a farm produces, including several fine dolls that are dressed in the height of doll fashion. These last are entered in the contest for the best dressed dolls, in which the girls of the country schools compete.

Not the least is the vtitalized agriculture exhibit. On the tables are ranged carefully written and illustrated accounts of the work done, as prepared by the children themselves.

By far the largest exhibit is that of corn, in which it is proved, according to Cooper Gooden, that a dry summer doesn't necessarily hurt the crop. Mr. Gooden this year is continuing the work he began several years ago under County Superintendent Oakerson, of looking out for the exhibits in general. He puts his heart in the work of seeing that all are arranged to the best advantage.

Both white and yellow corn are represented and the exhibits fill several tables. The contest that probably is attracting the greatest interest is that for the best fifty ears, white or yellow, which is open to all and in which a first prize of $50 is offered.

Entry for the exhibits closed this noon and the award of prizes is expected to begin as soon as all are in place. The corn in the farmers' and breeders' contest wil be sold Saturday afternoon, according to County Superintendent Bert Cooper.

One correction is to be noted here. The souvenirs of knitting needles for the girls and pocket knives for the boys do not go to all contestants, as reported. Those winning other prizes will not get them; those entered in the single-ear contests will not get them; and those entered in the general classes and the farmers' and corn breeders' classes will not get them. With these exceptions, all the boys and girls entered will receive souvenirs.

C. C. HELLMERS, MARYVILLE, GETS HIGH MASONIC HONOR

O. F. Wilson of Burlington Junction Another Named Knight Commander of Court of Honor

Under the heading, "Missouri Masons Given High Honor," the St. Joseph Gazette publishes the following special dispatch in its issue of this morning:

Washington, Oct. 22.—The following north Missouri Masons were elected to receive the degree of Knight Commander of the Court of Honor at the supreme council of Scottish Rite Masons, now in session here: C. D. Morris, Louis Bernstein and Wiley O. Cox, all of St. Joseph; O. F. Wilson, Burlington Junction; Howard Teare of Oregon and Charles C. Hellmers of Maryville.

The men named in the dispatch are all members of the St. Joseph consistory of Scottish Rite Masons. The degree to which they have been elected is an honorary one, given as a recognition for faithful service, and the election was a surprise to each of them. The St. Joseph branch of the order is represented at the supreme council by City Councilman J. W. Holtman and Claude Madison, both of whom are thirty-third degree Masons.

M. H. S. TEAM HOPES TO WIN GAME FROM BETHANY HERE

Teams Which Have Met Before Will Play Tomorrow on Gridiron of State Teachers College

Tomorrow the Maryville high school team expects to capture it fourth straight victory when it meets the Bethany high school team here on the State Teachers College gridiron. The locals are in first class condition and are anxious for the time when they are to kick off to Bethany.

Early in the season Maryville played Bethany and defeated them 7 to 0. The game tomorrow is guaranteed to be a fast and hard fought game, both teams having experience.

Captain Foreman, who has been disabled by injuries, will again be in the game.

Bethany, too, has been doing some good work this season. Says the Bethany Republican:

"The B. H. S. football team went over to Stanberry last Friday and peeled the hide off of that bunch to the tune of 17 to 6. The Stanberry team did their best, but they were 'too short at one end' to win the prize."

Judge Gallatin Craig Home.

The many friends of Judge Gallatin Craig are greatly pleased to learn that he has returned home greatly improved in health. We extend to you a welcome, Judge, and the latch string is out.

William Kelly, a banker of Perry, Kan., is visiting friends in Maryville. He left Maryville about ten years ago. While living here he was for a time circuit clerk and in the shoe business.

TEACHERS START SESSIONS TODAY

DR. F. J. KELLEY OF K. U. DELIVERS THE MORNING ADDRESS

"MUST MAKE CITIZENS"

Responsibility of Training Is Emphasized; Special Meetings This Afternoon

This afternoon it was estimated at the college that between 800 and 1,000 teachers had registered for the second annual meeting of the Northwest Missouri Teachers Association which convened here this morning.

That the most titanic responsibility ever placed upon school teachers is today and the importance of the methods and material used in developing the minds of the youth of the rising generation not simply to read, write, spell, but to make them first, good citizens, was the key note of the principal address given at the morning and opening session of the Northwest Missouri Teachers Association by Dr. F. J. Kelley, dean of the department of education, of the Kansas State university of Lawrence.

The meeting opened at 9:30 with the invocation by Dr. G. S. Cox of the First Methodist church, followed by a short address of welcome by Prof. Henry A. Foster. The response was given by J. S. Stoy, principal of Chillicothe, Mo., schools. Two violin numbers were given by Ralph Yehle, with Mary Carpenter pianist

"The work of a teacher is not hearing a boy or girl recite but to train them to take their places naturally and normally as we do in all places in life, and to do what trained judgment and intellect says to do even if the social side be disagreeable," was Dr. Kelley's expression. "No one ever heard of a courageous, self controlled, self reliant man or woman unless he or she was instructed in such developement as a child. These are the cardinal principles in either a boy or a girl that solve individual problems rightly.

"The greatest achievement of human kind is the ability to respond to a thing that ought to be done from an intellectual realization instead of from an instinctive impulse to do just what one want to do

"The teacher is now taxed to a greater responsibility than ever before, for the world has not yet reached the climax of the great struggle for democracy and the rising generation will have to assume their part in this change We cannot go about and let the world take care of itself, and it is not our first duty to look after our professions, but to make the citizenship of the individual safe—and through individual to make that of the race safe."

Tomorrow noon, in the college library, a luncheon will be served by the Young Women's Christian association, when their guests will be all former teachers and pupils of the college who are attending the association meeting. About four hundred are expected to be present. Today at noon and also tomorrow noon, the young women are serving cafeteria luncheon in the west

Conference on Vitalized Rural Life, under the direction of President Richardson, State Teachers College, Maryville.

Since the adoption of the rotation plan of teaching agriculture this seems a propitious time for a general conference on the above topic. It is intended to be of maximum assistance to the rural teachers and to give them something concrete to take home with them. The program will consist of brief talks by county superintendents, teachers and others, and an effort will be made to provide some demonstration work. Provision will be made for questions and for general discussion.

WORKERS PREPARE FOR A STRUGGLE

WOULD UNITE THE R. R. MEN OF THE U. S. AND CANADA

MAY NATIONALIZE MINES

Miners Refuse Conciliation in Coal Strikes; Railroad Clerks Plan a Walkout

Washington, Oct. 23.—An international alliance of the railroad brotherhoods of the United States and Canada, to fight out the impending life and death struggle of railroad workers which is now imminent, has been asked of Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and the executive committee of the American Federation, by the Illinois Federation of Labor. This move would make one big union of the railroad workers of North America. According to the leaders behind the proposition, all questions pertaining to their industry could be more effectively handled.

May Nationalize Mines.

Washington, Oct. 23.—The alliance between the coal miners and operators for the co-operative action in nationalizing coal mines as well as railroads is reported to be in the making. Meeting will be held in Washington Friday between John Lewis and other officers of the miners and the presidents of the four railroad brotherhoods for this purpose.

Coal Strike to Go Through.

Washington, Oct. 23.—Johin Lewis, acting president of the Miners union, declared today, after a conference with prominent miners and leaders to consider the wage increase proposal, that the strike of coal miners set for November 1 will go through. Lewis stated the decision of the conference was to reject the proposal made by Secretary Wilson, as the terms were inadequate to meet the demands of the miners.

Railway Clerks to Strike.

Washington, Oct. 23.—And still they strike. It was announced at the headquarters of the brotherhood of railway clerks here today that a general strike of the brotherhood was planned and the date to be set for some time in November.

Will Increase R. R. Wages.

Washington, Oct. 23.—The question of increased wages for railroad workers will be settled by the government before the roads are returned to their private owners, it was learned at the railroad administration offices today.

Divorce Suit Adjourned a While.

The divorce suit of William J. Wagner vs. Sarah E. Wagner, which, with a cross bill by the defendant, was on trial in the circuit court yesterday, was adjourned last evening until Saturday in order that additional witnesses might be called in. J. H. Sayler is sitting as special judge in the case.

Miss Isabelle Worst, assistant to County Treasurer James Blagg, will go to Omaha, Neb., tonight for a weekend visit to her home there. She will return to Maryville Sunday night.

ROOSEVELT MEMORIAL FUND GROWS SLOWLY IN COUNTY

Total of $79 of the $1,650 Quota is Raised; Chairman is Disappointed With Showing

If Nodaway county don't whip up a trifle the county's quota to the Roosevelt Memorial fund will be short when the drive ends, according to Fred Hull of Maryville, who is chairman for Nodaway. The total up to today was $79. Several good contributions from Graham helped the fund, but most of the county, including Maryville, seems to be asleep on the proposition.

The quota assigned to Nodaway county is $1,650.

Nearly everywhere else good progress in the campaign is reported. Mr. Hull is considerably disappointed that this county, which always showed such good support for Roosevelt during his lifetime, should forget about him so soon after his death.

The subscriptions received so far are as follows:

Previously reported	$22.00
W. F. Phares, Maryville	10.00
M. W. Wilson, Maryville	5.00
Mrs. W. C. Wilson, Graham	5.00
W. C. Wilson, Graham	5.00
F. P. Fleming, Graham	5.00
Mrs. T. E. Fleming, Graham	5.00
T. E. Fleming, Graham	5.00
C. A. Hawkins, Maryville	2.00
Total	$79.00

Cummins Bill Favorably Reported.

Washington, Oct. 23.—The Cummins railroad bill was favorably reported to the senate this afternoon by the interestate commerce committee.

Campaign of Arson Stopped.

Youngstown, O., Oct. 23.—A veritable campaign of arson in the Brierhill steel district was nipped in the bud this morning when the police, working on a tip, rounded up six strikers armed with gasoline and waste and the home of a negro steel worker, which had been set on fire.

German Baltic Order Canceled.

London, Oct. 23.—An order to German troops to withdraw from the Baltic provinces has been canceled, according to war office advices today.

Dry Law to Become Effective.

Washington, Oct. 23.—Strict laws for the enforcement of war time prohibition may become effective today. Doctor Grayson announced he would not oppose the bill's being presented to the president for his signature unless there is a change in his condition.

To Visit Brother Who Is Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Alexander of Maryville will leave this evening for Outlook, Wash., to visit Mr. Alexander's brother, George H. Alexander, who is seriously ill there. George H. Alexander, who is a former resident of Maryville, has lived in the west about forty years.

Mrs. Rebecca Glines Dead.

Mrs. Rebecca Glines, 77 years old, died shortly before 2 o'clock this morning at the home of her son, Henry Glines, five and one-half miles northwest of Pickering, after a two weeks illness. The body, accompanied by relatives, will be taken to Grand Island, Neb., this afternoon, for burial beside her husband, who died nine years ago last August. Surviving her are two daughters Mrs. Sarah McIntyre of Westmoreland, Kan., and Mrs. Mary Payne of Howell, Mich., and three sons, Henry Glines, Charles Glines of Greeley, Neb., and A. L. Glines of Grand Island, Neb.

License to marry has been issued in Kansas City to Albert Lundeen of Burlington Junction and Blanche A. Winslow of Kansas City.

LABOR GROUP TO STAND ON DIGNITY

OUT OF INDUSTRIAL CONFERENCE AND WON'T RETURN

PRESIDENT TAKES HAND

Asks For Report of Public Group and Declares Meeting Ended; Adjourned Today

Washington, Oct. 23.—That the labor group does not intend to return to the industrial conference was stated today by Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor.

"We are jumping jacks, we don't walk out of a conference and walk right back. We have been patient and are willing to meet with men willing to meet us on common ground. We made all concessions possible, we could not make more and face the millions of workers we represented," were Gompers' words.

Chairman Lane declared the conference permanently adjourned at 12:40 o'clock today.

Washington, Oct. 23.—President Wilson's condition has so far improved that he has been permitted to take some part in public business. He asked for the report of the public group of the industrial conference which he had called to Washington, and declared the conference at an end

President to Resume Work.

Washington, Oct. 23.—The president will today resume the duties of his office in so far as consideration and signing of important state documents are concerned.

President's Condition Improves.

Washington, Oct. 23.—The condition of President Wilson continues to improve. The following bulletin was issued today by Dr. Grayson. "The president is making as satisfactory progress as is possible under the circumstances. No new symptons have developed."

Bolshevik Warships Sunk.

London, Oct. 23. — Three hundred and fifty lives were lost when two Bolshevik cruisers were sunk off Kronstadt, said a Central News Helsingfors dispatch today. The Bolsheviki declared the cruisers hit mines. The British admiralty announced the sinking of two Bolshevik warships near Kronstadt Wednesday. Further retreats by Bolsheviks fighting around Petrograd are reported by Trotsky via Stockholm.

Frank Schweikhardt's Daughter Dead.

The body of Lena, the 14-year-old daughter of Frank Schweikhardt of East Stanwood, Wash., arrived in Barnard this noon, accompanied by the father. Funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at the First Methodist church in that city, conducted by the Rev. A. S. Olsen of Barnard. Burial will be in Miriam cemetery. The little girl died a few days ago of blood poisoning. Mr. Schweikhardt and his family formerly lived in the Idt. Ayr and Myrtle Tree neighborhoods and moved to Washington last spring.

Money Given to Stricken College.

St. Louis, Oct. 22.—To alleviate the situation caused by a typhoid epidemic at St. Paul's College, Concordia, Mo., delegates to the convention of the western district of the Evangelical Lutheran Synod, in session at Holy Cross school, donated $316. A resolution of the committee on parochial schools, providing for a superintendent to supervise all schools of the district, was adopted. A rising vote of thanks was given the returning president of the district, Rev. J. J. Bennthal. The annual report of the district treasurer, Prof. George Hoerber, showed that in 1918, $96,000 was collected in the district for church purposes. Rev. J. Fritz of St. Louis is the newly elected president and Rev. B. Brust of Concordia and Rev. L. Schwartz of Kansas City have been chosen vice presidents.

STORING SUMMER CLOTHES IS AN IMPORTANT MATTER

Outline of Proper Treatment Is Given by Home Economics Experts of U. S. Department

The organdies, palm beach, the straw hats and the low shoes are fast disappearing from the day-to-day wardrobe. The wise housewife does not let them stay in the overcrowded closet to take up valuable space and brush against velvets, serges and broadcloths. Neither does she lay them away in any condition they happen to be in after their last appearance. Instead, she puts them away carefully cleaned and treated so the least change possible will come to them, keeping record of what supplies there are and where she puts them in order that she may find them when the occasion arises by simply looking at her desk records. If packed in boxes, a label on each box telling the contents makes the finding of each article an easy matter. Her outline of treatment would be very nearly like the following, according to home economics specialists in the United States department of agriculture:

Washable White Clothing.—Washed carefully, no starch added, blued more than usual to avoid a yellow appearance when spring unpacking comes. Hung in a closet reserved for this particular use or folded so that the creases will correspond as far as possible with the folds into which the garment falls in use and laid in a trunk or box.

Washable Colored Clothes.—Washed, unstarched, turned wrong side out and hung in the closet or packed away as were the white garments.

Palm Beach Suits.—Cleaned and put in separate box, carefully folded.

Hats.—How to treat the summer hat depends much upon the material If of straw, brushing off all dust and packing in a hat box is good treatment. The georgette and lace hats, if soiled, should be dry cleaned and allowed to air thoroughly before wrapping in tissue paper and storing away in a hat box. Avoid weight which will crush the trimming.

Shoes. — The pumps and oxfords should be cleaned and put away with shoe trees in each one.

Inventory should be simple, of course, but definite, giving a list and storage place of the clothes for each member of the family. This will prove of definite service when next spring's budget requires thought and time.

President of Ireland to Present Cause of His Nation at St. Joseph

"Arrangements are about complete for the address to be given here by Eamonn de Valera, president of the Irish Republic, in the Auditorium at St. Joseph, Sunday, October 26, at 2 o'clock," writes a member of the reception committee. "Much advertising has been done, and the committees in charge of the arrangements have been promised such large delegations that a capacity audience is assured.

"Frank P. Walsh, former member of the National War Labor Board, who accompanies President de Valera, is attracting much interest because of his international reputation as a speaker.

"The attitude of St. Louis people of all creeds and races towards the cause of Ireland has been demonstrated in words when the committee is congratulated upon securing the Irish president to speak here.

"It is evident here, as well as in many of the towns surrounding, that the universal opinion of right thinking people is that Ireland deserves her freedom. Many ask what the Irish subject really is, and committtee members have been afforded great pleasure in explaining the history of that country.

"One of the most pleasing features of the preliminaries, to the committee, is the increasing evidence among the people that the Irish subject is not a religious one. Daily that view is expressed by the score of interested people here.

"That religion is not the cause of the trouble in Ireland has been proven by able men who have studied the present situation. Ireland proclaimed her republic in 1916, just as America declared its republic in 1776. Both were proclaimed free from British rule. In 1779 the British still declared that there was no American republic, and sent armies here to subdue the 'rebels.' So has England in this year declared that there is no Irish republic, and has sent troops to that country, also to subdue the 'rebels.'

"Ireland proclaimed their republic after the election of Eamonn de Valera as the first president with a two-thirds majority of votes of the people. He has made appeals to England that should receive for his country just recognition and self-government. To date, England has stubbornly refused to relinquish its hold on the country. De Valera proclaimed the republic to be the only government of Ireland, and rioting followed.

"Riots in Ireland were not between Catholics and Protestants, the records show, nor were they between Irishmen for and against freedom, but were between England's emmissaries and loyal Irish citizens. Sir Roger Casement, who truly paid the supreme sacrifice in the cause of Irish freedom, was a prominent member of a Protestant church. He died in his mighty battle to have the country he loved self-governing. Many other prominent Irishmen, who died in the same cause by bullets fired by British soldiers, were members of prominent Protestant churches. These facts allay the fears that the Catholics of Ireland are the only supporters of the Irish republic. England has made that claim, but the commission headed by Governor Dunne of New York, with Frank P. Walsh, deny that such is the case.

"All of the important angles of the Irish subject will be explained by President de Valera and Mr. Walsh when they speak here. Because the subject is so important, the attendance is expected to surpass any that has ever attended a public lecture here before.

"Everyone is invited, as the committee wishes only to have the subject discussed that persons who don't understand it will be enlightened."

Handbills advertising the program at St. Joseph and arguing for the Irish cause point out by figures that Ireland has a greater population than Norway, Denmark or Switzerland, has a greater area than Belgium, Holland, Denmark or Switzerland, and has a governmental cost greater than that of Serbia, Greece, Switzerland, Bulgaria, Norway or Denmark. In 1919, says the handbill, England collected from Ireland $170,000,000 and spent in Ireland only $65,000,000.

Ireland did a business in 1917 of $820,000,000, the handbill goes on to say, exceeding that of eight free nations mentioned, but 95 per cent of that business was with England. Irish independence would mean an increased trade with America, the bill argues.

NEBRASKA GAME, NOVEMBER [illegible] WILL BE HOMECOMING AT M.U.

Plans Being Made to Receive Alumni; Mass Meetings, Parade and Open Houses Included

Columbia, Oct. 22.—Plans for the first of the university's post-war jubilees are being outlined by the officers of the Student Council. It will be celebrated on November 8, when H. F. Schulte, former Tiger coach and now Cornhuskers' mentor at Nebraska, invades Columbia to do what he can to defeat his old pupils in football.

Homecoming Day plans as outlined thus far include two big mass meetings at which prominent alumni of the University will talk, a parade the day [illegible]me and receptions and open [illegible] all of the many university clubs and fraternities and sororities. Fred Eldean, who has been appointed executive chairman, will oversee the general preparations which are to be made in every department of the university, each student group arranging for a float in the parade and for general plans to welcome old alumni back to Missouri.

Judging from advance out-of-town reservations now being made, the Homecoming of 1919 will be one of the largest of the university.

4,000,000 WILL QUIT GERMANY

To Abandon Fatherland as Soon as Transportation Permits.

FEW FOR THE UNITED STATES

South America and Russia Will Attract Most—Big German Steamship Companies Already Booking Passages for Prospective Emigrants—New Government Wants Its Emigrants to Remain German—Exodus Not Encouraged.

Four million Germans are preparing to abandon the fatherland and seek their fortunes abroad. This figure is official, furnished by Geheimrat Jung, director of the recently organized government bureau of migration.

It will take ten years to transport the emigrants, according to Herr Jung. Bad economic conditions, resulting from the war, are responsible for the wholesale exodus.

The big German steamship companies already have began booking passages for the prospective emigrants.

The Hamburg-Amerika line alone, according to Carl Vogelsang, director of the Berlin office, has a waiting list of 400 families destined for the United States and South America.

"But, of course, we cannot begin moving the passengers until the entente powers have ratified the peace treaty, when probably we shall charter several big liners from America," declared Herr Vogelsang.

Few Coming to U. S.

The United States, in the opinion of Geheimrat Jung, will receive but an infinitesimal proportion of Germany's army of emigrants. The German government at least is not encouraging emigration to the United States.

"In the United States," said Herr Jung, "our people lose their German nationality and become Americanized. The German-Americans proved this in the war.

"We want our emigrants to remain German. This is possible only in countries where language and customs are sharply contrasted to our own. Countries like Russia, Argentina, Paraguay and Brazil are ideal for German settlements.

"We have a report here that the American congress has made a law compelling all immigrants to study the English language and American history. Such measures of compulsion will certainly not appeal to Germans.

"Russia probably will be the favorite point of emigration for Germans. That country abounds in virgin resources that can be exploited by industrious and thrifty Germans.

"Furthermore, the political radicalism of Russia has a peculiar appeal to the mind of the German workingman. He feels that Russia is the only country where capital does not prey upon labor.

"The British colonies, including Canada, are put out of question as they, in common with England, have passed exclusion acts against German immigration. Mexico is questionable. While Mexico is a highly desirable country for German settlement, it probably will be so strongly under American control that our emigrants will be refused entry.

Won't Encourage Exodus.

"This bureau does not encourage emigration at all. In fact, the new German government was at first directly opposed to emigration. But since the new constitution specifically permits it we must see that the emigrant is properly directed and advised. That is the only purpose of my department.

"We also must protect the emigrant against exploiters who would separate him from his money. Doubtful organizations which peddle golden promises for the emigrant's cash have sprung up.

"For instance, one particular company is booming Patagonia as the land of wonderful opportunities and trying to persuade our emigrants to settle there, when, as a matter of fact, no German farmer or laborer could make a living in Patagonia.

"There are five or six good companies that honestly endeavor to find suitable locations for German settlement in South America, but most of these so-called emigration societies are much like your American real estate concerns selling lots on the bottom of a lake."

"Half World Has Bad Temper."

"Bad temper is not a ground for separation—if it were, half the people in the world would be separated," declared Magistrate Lankester in Thames court, London, when a woman applied for a writ of separation from her husband declaring he had "an awful temper."

RECRUITING OFFICER ANSWERS QUESTIONS ABOUT THE NAVY

Takes Up Intimate Points That Every Prospective Enlisted Man Is Anxious to Know

In the present recruiting campaign of the United States navy for 150,000 men, Lieutenant Commander E. A. Brooks, navy recruiting officer at Seventh and Chestnut streets, St. Louis, Mo., submits the following list of questions and answers on the navy which answers those intimate points every prospective recruit wants to know.

Any young man interested in joining Uncle Sam's navy can secure a railroad ticket to St. Louis by first writing for a medical examination sheet and answering the questions contained in it.

Q. (1) How long may I join the navy for?

A. (1) You may join for 2, 3 or 4 years, as you choose.

Q. (2) What are the requirements?

A. (2) You must be from 17 to 25 years of age and not under 62 in. in height and 110 lbs. in weight.

Q. (3) What is the pay in the navy?

A. (3) It varies according to rank and length of service. You start in at $32.60 a month. Some men (not officers) draw $120 a month, or better. The lowest navy pay corresponds to about $85.60 a month outside, because your board, lodging and medical attendance are furnished free by the government.

Q. (4) How about uniforms?

A. (4) A complete outfit of clothing, such as uniforms, socks, shoes, underwear, etc., is given you free when you join.

Q. (5) Does every sailor who joins get to visit a foreign port?

A. (5) Not always, but on September 2 there were 168 navy ships in foreign ports.

Q. (6) Does every sailor who joins get all around the world?

A. (6) No. The navy offers the opportunity, however, and very many sailors have encircled the globe.

Q. (7) Do they allow sailors ashore in every port?

A. (7) It is the policy of the navy department to not send ships to ports where liberty cannot be granted.

Q. (8) What is meant by liberty?

A. (8) Leave to go ashore after the day's work is done. Two-thirds of the time after working hours is given to shore liberty if the ship is in port.

Q. (9) How about furloughs?

A. (9) Thirty days furlough, on pay, every year. Can be taken all at one time or in ten day installments.

Q. (10) Will a navy training give me a better job when I finish my cruise?

A. (10) A letter from A. C. Bedford, president of the Standard Oil Company, has just been received, stating that "Personally, I consider an honorable discharge from the U. S. navy as one of the best recommendations a man can give when applying for employment." The president of Sears, Roebuck & Company, in Chicago, says practically the same thing. The president of the Pennsylvania writes, "We regard the fact that a man has been in the navy as an excellent recommendation."

COME HAVE HEK OF A TIME, M. U. FARMERS INVITATION

Annual Barnwarming of Agricultural Students to be Done in Rural Style

Columbia, Mo., Oct. 21—Invitations were sent out last week for the annual barnwarming of the students in the college of Agriculture, which will be held in Rothwell Gymnasium Oct. 24. The invitations were written in scrawly handwriting on rough paper, stuffed inside a hollowed out corn cob, and a mailing tag wired on for the address of the lady. Each student asks a guest to "slick up in her best enlyeo, and come have a hek of time with him and the rest of the farmers."

The work of decorating the gymnasium was begun today. Shocks of corn fodder, pumpkins and other farm products will play a prominent part in the gala dress of the "barn." The farmers and their friends will play games popular in rural Missouri, and there will be dancing on the basketball court. The barnwarming is also the occasion for electing and crowning the harvest queen, chosen annually by the agricultural students. F. B. Mumford, dean of the College of Agriculture, will perform the coronation ceremonies.

All this week, in accordance with an old custom of the school, the farmers will carry cornstalks as canes.

Missouri Police Union Quits.

Belleville, Mo., Oct. 23.—The Belleville Policemen's Union has surrendered its recently granted charter in the American Federation of Labor as the result of the pledge given the mayor and city council that efforts would be made toward the adopteion of a civil service system for city employes.

COLLEGE HAS "PEP" MEETING, PRACTICES YELLS FOR GAME

Westminster Will Play S. T. C. at Football Here Saturday; First Game Here at Home

A "pep" meeting of the student body of the State Teachers College was held at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, after school, in order to rehearse yells for the Westminster football game here next Saturday.

The meeting was opened by President Ira Richardson, who made a few remarks on school spirit and then presented the two yell leaders, W. E. McDonald and John Price, with canes decorated with green and white ribbons, in the colors of the school.

And then the yells were practiced.

The team representing the college here seems to have an excellent chance for victory in the game Saturday, despite the previous defeats it has sustained. Westminster College, which is at Fulton, has lost all three of the games it has played this season by overwhelming scores and has failed to score against its opponents.

The odds are not large on either team, but the Maryville boys will be playing at home, with a home crowd behind them. This will be the first game this season the Maryville team has played at home.

Some of the players on the State Teachers College team are not in the best of condition, as the result of injuries in recent games, but it is hoped that they will be able to be in the line-up Saturday. Captain Richards, in the backfield, and Wray, an end, were out of the last game.

Fire Damages Lancaster, Mo.

Lancaster, Mo., Oct. 23.—Fire destroyed the large poultry and seed house of J. C. Hockett and a nearby frame building owned by the Schuyler County Milling Company and much of the contents of both buildings, and damaged the city electric light plant. The damage is estimated at $20,000, partly covered by insurance. A spark from a passenger train is thought to have caused the fire.

Sugar Quiz in St. Louis Effective.

St. Louis, Oct. 22.—Three St. Louis dealers have been ordered to appear before United States District Attorney Hensley tomorrow afternoon and show cause why their government license should not be revoked. They are H. W. Gildehaus of H. W. Gildehause and Co., E. Guckenheim & Co., and W. Berry Gunn. Government agents, it is said, have secured evidence that many sugar dealers in St. Louis have reaped profits considerably in excess of the government allowance.

Goes to California at 82.

Cana Baker, 82 years old, but hale and lively, left this morning for Los Angeles, Calif., after spending two years and a half at the home of his daughter, Mrs. D. C. Wilson, 321 East Seventh street, Maryville. Mr. Baker will visit a daughter in Los Angeles, and later another daughter elsewhere on the Pacific coast. He hopes to return to Maryville some day, as he has no fixed home.

TEACHERS MEETING

hall to all who care to remain during the noon hour.

The general reception for all visitors, when the faculty of the college and members of the Chamber of Commerce, with their wives, will be the hosts, will follow the program tonight. The formal program will conclude about 9:30 o'clock and the reception in the main hall will follow.

This afternoon the department of elementary grade teachers met in the library with J. M. McDonald, Maryville superintendent of schools, chairman. The program of this meeting was:

1. Physical Training; Its Place in the Grade School—A. L. Dailey, supt. of schools, Richmond, Mo.

2. Teaching Music Without a Supervisor—L. M. Hosman, supt. of schools, Gallatin, Mo.

3. Worth While Student Activities for Grade Children—A. L. Threlkeld, supt. of schools, Chillicothe, Mo.

4. The Importance of the Lesson Assignment — C. A. Hawkins, State Teachers College, Maryville, Mo.

In room 320, the department of high school teachers met at 2 o'clock. Mr. Threlkeld of Chillicothe presided. Their program follows:

The Extra-Class-Room Life of the High School—J. C. Stoy, principal of the Chillicothe high school.

The Junior-Senior High School Idea and the Present Demands Upon Education—G. W. Diemer, supt., Excelsior Springs.

General discussion from the floor of the above subjects and of any other problems affecting the high schools of the state.

The department of rural school teachers held their session in the auditorium this afternoon also, with Miss Gertrude Thompson of Tarkio as chairman. The following program was given:

The Minimum Provisions That Rural Districts May Make to Fit Their Pupils for High School—J. A. Higdon, supt., Tarkio.

How the Daily Program May Be Vitalized—Miss Louise Jones, South Dale School, Atchison county.

The Fairview Rural High School; Its Present and Its Future—Mr. Montford, supt., Fairview.

Boys' Quartette — Fairview High School.

Immediately following the program the counties met in rooms assigned them. Representatives from each of them were chosen to act on the following committees, which will meet tomorrow morning at 8:30: Nominations committee, room 320; resolutions committee, room 301; time committee, room 302.

ASSOCIATION NOTES.

"My, how glad I am to be here," was heard on all sides at the College this morning. The long walk, wet under foot, misty weather above, did not seem to dampen enthusiasm at all.

"Even your business letter to me the other day looked good," said another.

"You've changed things quite a lot, but it still looks like home," came from a third visitor.

All day the faculty and students worked diligently, placing the guests and assisting them in every way. But the visitors seemed to know their way around very well.

In the corridor, by the enrollment booth was a table for the alumni to register. At this table also tickets were sold for the reunion luncheon to be held in the library tomorrow. From indications, many former students are planning to attend the luncheon.

The Excelsor tea this afternoon made quite a hit with the visiting teachers. The reception was given from 3:30 to 5 o'clock in the ladies parlor.

The Philomatheans held their annual homecoming also this afternoon. Many former Philos were present and letters were read from some who were teaching out of the district and could not come to the association.

The Eurekan Literary Society also held a reception for their members, both old and new.

At the Balnum Hotel this noon the Primary Council gave a luncheon complimentary to Miss Dobbs, who speaks this evening. About fifty attended.

Tonight the reception by the Chamber of Commerce and the factulty will be held in the college library following the second general session, which will begin at 8 o'clock. Miss Ella Victoria Dobbs, assistant professor of manual arts, University of Missouri, will discuss "Our Changed Living Conditions and the Corresponding Changes Needed in the Schools." Hon. Sam A. Baker, state superintendent of public schools, will also address the teachers. Miss Alys Swedeberg of the Maryville Conservatory of Music will give one of the musical numbers.

It is hoped that many of the citizens will avail themselves of the opportunity to attend this meeting.

WELCOME C. OF C. EXTENDED MADE HIT WITH TEACHERS

Automobile Rides and Assistance in Finding Rooms Are Appreciated, Many Report

The Maryville Chamber of Commerce certainly made a large hit with the visiting teachers by the welcome it assisted in extending to them. Many of the merchants uptown report complimentary remarks customers have made on the reception, including the automobile rides uptown and the registration headquarters for rooms.

The transportation committee of the Chamber of Commerce met the Wabash last night as its first train and the Burlington this noon as its last. Fifty cars were at the Burlington last night, and these were insufficient to carry the visitors on a single trip; several had to return to the station.

Even the early Wabash this morning, that required drivers to get up about 5 o'clock, was met by enough cars so that only two or three had to make second trips.

The registration headquarters in the Zook building has taken care of the teachers who arrived without having rooms engaged in advance. Mrs. Alice Perrin, dean of women of the State Teachers College, was in charge this morning and reported rooms enough for the demand up to that time.

NOT MUCH INTEREST SHOWN IN THE RED CROSS ELECTION

Eleven Men Nominated Are Elected as Executive Committee by the Fifteen Votes Cast

Little interest was shown yesterday in the election of the executive committee of the Nodaway county chapter of the American Red Cross. Only fifteen votes were cast at the voting place on West Third street, Maryville, and the eleven men who had been nominated were elected without opposition. They are H. S. Rowlett, R. P. Hosmer, J. F. Colby, Dr. E. C. Braniger, Bruce Montgomery, F. S. King, George Robb Ellison, C. L. Harman, J. F. Hull, Dr. Will Wallis, Jr., and Dr. C. T. Bell.

It is probable that they will meet tomorrow or next day to perfect their organization. At that time they will choose a chairman, a vice chairman, a secretary and a treasurer.

Meeting of Farmers' Union.

A meeting of the Farmers' Union of Nodaway county will be held in the court house in this city Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock and farmers interested in the meeting are invited to attend. Arrangements have been made to have two speakers, Charles H Watts of Omaha, and Fred Emmert address the convention. Alfred Walton of Skidmore is president of the organization.

Revival Meetings at Mt. Ayr.

The attendance at the revival meetings at Mt. Ayr being conducted by the Rev. Thomas Young of Bedison has doubled since the beginning of the services. When the invitation was extended last night eight went forward, five for the first time. An enjoyable feature of the services last night was a special song, "Jesus Calls the Children," sung by the children.

Hughes Funeral Services.

Funeral services for Thomas Hughes were held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of N. Sisson, conducted by the Rev. R. E. Snodgrass, pastor of the Christian church. Musical numbers were given by Mrs. Fred Robinson, who sang a solo, and by a quartette composed of Mrs. Robinson, Miss Anntee Neal, John Mutz and W. E. Goforth. The Masonic lodge, of which Mr. Hughes was a member, attended the services in a body and conducted the services at Miriam cemetery where the body was interred.

Get Ready to Change Your Clocks.

On next Saturday evening before you retire, if you fail to set your clock back to standard time you will be just an hour ahead of everybody else on Sunday morning. The time changes back again on Sunday morning at 2 o'clock, and for convenience sake the clocks will be set back on the night before.

Gaynor City Christian Church.

Services as follows for Sunday, October 26: Sunday is "Go-to-Sunday-School Day" and everyone should be at Bible school at 10 o'clock. Preaching at 11 o'clock a. m., and again at 7:30 p. m. All are cordially invited to attend. W. H. RUST, Pastor.

A $200,000 Land Deal Made.

One thousand and five acres of Nodaway county land changed hands Monday of this week when W. R. Hukill, living three miles southeast of Maitland, who owned part of the S. B. Hazlett farm, traded his 525 acres of land to Ollie Breit and John A. Fields of Barnard for their 480 acres they recently purchased of Mrs. Gwendolyn Denning. This was a $200,000 deal. It was consummated through the Chas. D. Weller Realty Co. of Maitland.

COUNTERFEIT WAR SAVINGS STAMPS IN CIRCULATION

Duplicates of 1919 Issue Discovered in East; West is Warned to be on the Lookout

Counterfeit war saving stamps of the 1919 issue have been discovered in the east, according to word received by St. Joseph bankers from the fiscal agent of the Federal Reserve Bank, and the bankers are requested to take steps to warn the people of the community, says the St. Joseph News-Press.

"So far as we know there are none of these stamps in St. Joseph or vicinity now," said J. E. Combs, cashier of the First National Bank, "but the public should be warned against them."

The counterfeit, which is pasted on genuine certificates, is a photographic reproduction in good color blue ink, but the fine lines behind the portrait in the genuine appear in the solid color in the counterfeit. The perforations of the genuine stamps appear photographed on the counterfeit. All postmasters, sub-stations, banks and dealers in these stamps have been notified and are requested that anyone presenting the counterfeits be arrested immediately.

Goode Will Accept the Judgeship.

Jefferson City, Oct. 23.—Governor Gardner received a telegram from Judge Richard L. Goode of St. Louis last night stating that he would accept the appointment of judge of the supreme court tendered him by the governor last Saturday. His commission will be issued today.

Mrs. Grant Trusty is seriously ill of pneumonia at her home on West First street.

Miss Marjorie Trout returned to St. Joseph this morning after a visit with her cousin, Miss Mary Margaret Richey, and was accompanied by Miss Richey, who will be her guest over the week end.

You Can Sleep Another Hour

after the clocks are turned back next Sunday.

But if you had an electric range you could sleep an hour longer whether they were ever turned back or not, because you can set the clock so that it will turn on the electricity at the right time and when you get up the coffee will be boiled, the water hot for the eggs and hot biscuits in the oven ready to eat.

That's the best way to add to your life—by having the conveniences and comforts that relieve you of some of the drudgery of housekeeping. When you have these comforts they make you WANT to live longer, because they make life living.

Mrs. Bellows to Chicago.

Mrs. George P. Bellows will leave Saturday afternoon for Chicago with the intention of making that city her future home. Mrs. Bellows' son, Harold H. Bellows, and her brother, Dr. F. C. Honnold, are both residents of Chicago, and to be with them was the principal inducement in Mrs. Bellows going there to live.

The regret of Mrs. Bellows' departure is wide spread in the community. When the Nodaway County Red Cross chapter was organized, Mrs. Bellows was appointed county director of women's work and in that capacity she had entire charge of all the county output, working tirelessly and faithfully during the long period of war relief activities, and giving her highest service at all times. She has also been a very active member in the work of the Twentieth Century Club and the broad minded and charming qualities for which Mrs. Bellows has been admired during her long residence in this city have been a great factor in placing that organization in the prominence it hold in Missouri Women's clubs. These same qualities were also evident in her work in the First Methodist church and other enterprises in which she was interested.

During the last seven months, Mrs. Bellows has given up all outside work and interests in order to care for her mother, Mrs. M. J. Honnold, whose death occurred recently.

Halloween Party.

The officers and teachers of the Children's division of the South Methodist church will entertain the children of the school with a Halloween party Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Sunday school rooms of the church.

Maryville People to Concert.

The first number of Mrs. Francis Henry Hill's series of concerts will be presented tonigat at the Auditorium in St. Joseph. CAMPAIGN TO GET $2,000,000 FOR CHRISTIAN COLLEGES ON

G. B. Roseberry is District Financial Manager; Rev. R. E. Snodgrass, County Director

The state campaign to raise $2,000,000 for the Christian church colleges in Missouri opened in St. Joseph yesterday. A conference of ministers and laymen from the Seventh district, which comprises twenty-three counties in northwest Missouri, was held at noon at the Hotel Robidoux. There were thirty-five men in attendance. Edward H. Foote, state campaign manager, was the principal speaker. The pupose of the noon conference was to instruct the campaign leaders in the counties of the district concerning their work.

The object of the campaign is to raise the money needed to support the colleges of the church in the state, which have come to need financial aid. For six years there have been no financial agents in the field in this state. Some of the schools have suffered loss of attendance on account of the war. The advance in prices greatly increased the cost of operation. The raising of standards of education, together with the problems of reconstruction, imposed heavy additional financial burdens. The educational commission, composed of the executive heads of these schools, met last February and estimated the need for financial assistance at more than a million dollars. The state convention considered the amount too small and increased it to $2,000,000, Mr. Foote explained.

Col. Fred W. Fleming of Kansas City is the state campaign committee chairman, John I. Williamson of Kansas City is chairman of the "minute men," and Frank H. Henry of St. Louis is chairman of the executive committee.

For the Seventh district, George W. Eastin of St. Joseph is chairman of the "minute men," and G. B. Roseberry of Maryville is the financial manager. Other county leaders are J. Howard, Mound City, director for Holt county; Rev. R. E. Snodgrass of Maryville, for Nodaway county; A. L. Anderson of Maysville, for DeKalb county, and C. C. Davis of Stanberry, for Gentry county.

MISSOURI BAPTISTS VOTE TO JOIN SOUTHERN CONVENTION

Breach Was Threatened When More Than Forty Delegates Walked Out; Meeting in St. Louis

St. Louis, Oct. 23.—The Missouri Baptist general convention yesterday voted to align the state Baptist Association with the Southern Baptist convention. Delegates numbering more than forty, representatives of the Northern Baptist churches, immediately left the hall and called a meeting of their own for later in the day.

Thus a breach was threatened that had its origin in the Civil war and which has been averted since by the "Missouri plan" which permitted Missouri churches to contribute to and use the literature of either the northern and southern organization.

St. Louis, Oct. 23.—One thousand or more Baptists are attending the annual convention of the Missouri Baptist General Association which opened here yesterday and will continue through the day in the Third Baptist church.

At the afternoon session yesterday Hugh Stephens of Jefferson City read the report of the executive board and general secretary J. P. Jacobs delivered an address. The evening services were devoted to discussion of education, addresses being delivered by Dr. D. J. Evans, dean of William Jewell College, Liberty, Mo., and J. C. Pike, A. F. Hendricks, John W. Crouch, J. M. Wood and John W. Millian.

Boy Scouts to Hold Meeting.

A reunion of the Maryville Boy Scouts is to be held this evening at the State Teachers College park, where a meeting and a weiner roast will be held. Sixty-seven members are expected to gather there, under the direction of scout commander M. A. Peery.

RED CROSS DRIVE GAINS MOMENTUM

ACTIVITIES OF EACH DAY OF NOVEMBER CAMPAIGN OUTLINED.

SCHOOL CHILDREN TO AID

Also Women's Clubs, Municipal Employees, Labor Organizations and Business Men.

That added momentum is being given by the Third Red Cross Roll Call by the approach of the opening day of the campaign, November 2, is indicated by hundreds of preliminary reports reaching Southwestern Division headquarters in St. Louis from Red Cross Chapters in the five States — Missouri, Kansas, Texas, Arkansas and Oklahoma — composing the division. The drive closes November 11.

An outline, giving in detail the Red Cross activities that will characterize each day of the 10-day campaign, recently has been made public. The opening day as been designated "Red Cross Sunday" and will be the occasion for sermons on the Red Cross that will be preached in churches throughout the United States. Special programs are to be held at morning or evening services.

On Monday, November 3, the Governor's proclamation in each State will be made public, mass meetings will begin and the first check of the progress of the campaign will be made at a workers' dinner in the evening.

"Municipal Employees Day" has been set for Tuesday, November 4. On this day a proclamation from the Mayor of each city and town will be arranged for, while on the principal municipal building the Red Cross flag will be raised to be displayed throughout the remainder of the campaign.

Department store speeches will be made by "four-minute men" to be followed by lunch hour enrollment.

Wednesday, November 5, is to be "Women's Day," on which special tribute is to be paid to the work which women are doing in the Red Cross. Meetings of women's clubs, special exercises in Red Cross workrooms and Chapters will characterize the day, which also will mark the peak of the house-to-house canvass that is to be an additional feature of the campaign.

Homage to the support which the laboring man is giving to the Red Cross will be paid Thursday, November 6, which is "Employees' Day." Noon meetings will be held at factories and large industrial plants.

The school children of each city, town and county will be the central figures on Friday, November 7, when special exercises in the schools will be held. The following day is special feature day for business and fraternal clubs. On the second Sunday of the campaign, November 9, patriotic sermons will be preached. November 10 is "Button Day," when all not wearing Red Cross buttons, will be solicited, while on Tuesday, November 11, the first anniversary of the Armistice, final reports will be made, and the campaign will close.

SOLDIERS TO DIRECT DRIVE

SAILORS, TOO, IN SOME CASES WILL RUN CAMPAIGN.

Willingness of Returned Fighters to Direct Red Cross Roll Call Encouraging.

Returned soldiers and sailors in a large number of Red Cross Chapters of the Southwestern Division of the Red Cross—Missouri, Kansas, Texas, Arkansas and Oklahoma—have accepted the directorship of the Third Red Cross Roll Call, Nov. 2 to 11, according to a recent announcement.

That this willingness not only to become members of the organization but to engage actively in the campaign to perpetuate the American Red Cross for future work indicates the high regard in which service men hold the Red Cross, is the belief of Alfred Fairbank, Division Manager.

"The fact that the young men who have served their country so courageously, and who have seen the Red Cross at work, are willing to assist so actively in its continuance should appeal to every man, woman and child in the country.

TEACHERS WILL CANVASS

Dallas, Texas, Instructors Valuntee As Red Cross Roll Call Workers.

School teachers of Dallas, Texas, have volunteered their services as canvassers for the Third Red Cross Roll Call, November 2 to 11. They already have perfected an organization and plan to make a house-to-house canvass on the second Sunday of Roll Call week in an effort to swell the total of Red Cross memberships for 1920.

"As we each intend to canvass in our own district," one teacher writes the Red Cross headquarters, "we expect to accomplish much by this unified action. Many teachers have mentioned that they had been unable to give as much time to war work as they wished and therefore desired now to aid the Red Cross in furthering its peace program.

'Twas Just a Year Ago Right Now; With the Eighty-Ninth in Battle

Funny what a year can do.

Lots of young fellows are living "soft" in Nodaway county this fall, right now, who would have given ten years off their lives—if they expected to have any lives left to speak of—for a real bed and an eight-hour-a-day job and some of mother's cooking just a year ago today.

All through October of last year, after a start in September, the United States army was putting in its hardest licks of the war in the great Argonne-Meuse battle. Not the least part of the work, by far, was that done by the Eighty-ninth division, recruited from the factories and farms of Missouri and Kansas. The Eighty-ninth made its debut in the Argonne battle on the nineteenth of October, when it relieved the Thirty-second division in the Epineuville sector, after being in support of the Thirty-second from the fifteenth of October on. From then to the end of the war, the Eighty-ninth was in the battle for all it was worth.

Treasured by many former soldiers of Company L, 356th Infantry, recruited from Nodaway, Randolph, Cooper and Charlton counties, are copies of a little book that was printed by J. Lintz of Trier, Germany, long after the war had come to an end. That little book is a history of Company L, written by Sergeant Albert Crumrine. On the cover of the 16-page booklet appears the insignia of the division, in colors.

Company L, which was organized at Camp Funston in September, 1917, had A. Y. Wear for its captain. After being reduced in numbers and then filled again by replacements while in the course of its training at Camp Funston, Company L left with the division on May 24, 1918, bound for France. After a short stay at Camp Mills, the division sailed from Hoboken on the fourth of June, arriving at Liverpool June 16. The crossing from Southampton to Le Havre, France, was made the night of June 19-20.

Once in France, the division trained in the Liffol-le-Grand region, Company L being stationed at Villouxel. The men of Company L heard the whistle of their first enemy shells when they took up a support position north of Toul on August 6. They went into the trenches opposite Montsec, in the region of Xivray, on August 22, where they remained until August 30.

After a short rest, the Eighty-ninth got into its first battle, the St. Mihiel drive, which began September 12. Starting from Flirey, on the southern side of the salient, the division swept through, with slight losses, to Beney, opposite Metz, where the drive ended. When the Argonne-Meuse battle satrted, on September 26, the Eighty-ninth was still in the St. Mihiel region, being reserve at Essey.

October 15 the division moved into the Argonne region, going in as support for the Thirty-second, which it relieved at the front four days later. The Argonne battle was nearly at a standstill at that time, the American army having advanced so far and so rapidly that it was necessary to build up the communications before making another jump. The final attack was set for November 1—but nobody knew at the time that it would be the very final attack.

October 31 the Eighty-ninth moved up to its jumping off place in the Bantheville Woods. After a fine barrage the attack started the morning of November 1. In six days the Missouri and Kansas boys cut their way through to the Meuse river, arriving opposite Pouilly on November 6. For several days the division lingered in this position, reconnoitering the possibility of crossing the river. On the night of November 10-11, all arrangements being completed, the crossing was made, and on the morning of the eleventh, which was destined to be the last day of the war, the division reached its objective, two kilometers beyond the river, and dug in.

A patrol started out at 9 o'clock to clean up the Vignette farm for a regimental command post. This was completed about 11 o'clock. Members o the patrol fired at the last German at three minutes to 11. On their way back to the lines, they heard of the armistice, which went into effect at 11.

The war being over, Company L helped to fix the roads in the Pouilly area for an advance into Germany. On November 24, the march of the division into German began. Belgium was reached on the twenty-fifth; Luxemburg, on December 2; Germany, on December 6. On December 21, just in time for Christmas, the division reached the Schweich area, where it was to be stationed through the winter..

Company L was stationed at Issel, two kilometers from Schweich. And that is where the history was written and the record ends.

WAR DEPARTMENT SAVED SITUATION

RELEASED MUCH SUGAR FOR SALE TO THE GENERAL PUBLIC

ARMY IS NOW LIMITED

Normal Reserve Supply Is Cut Down; Sale of Material In France Is Ably Conducted

Washington, Oct. 23.—In the controversy over the cost of living and particularly the sugar shortage the country is now undergoing it has developed that the country might have been in actual sugar famine several weeks ago but for the efforts of the war department which has released more than 50,000,000 pounds of sugar for sale to the public during the past few months. As a result the army is now existing on a reserve of less than two and one-half months' supply and every soldier from the chief of staff to the buck privates is having his sugar supply rationed. The normal sugar reserve of the army is at least three months supply and usually nearer six months supply, but the department has cut this way below normal to meet the civil demands.

Anticipating a possible recurrence this year of a sugar shortage in the early fall at the end of the preserving season, Secretary of War Baker had a special survey of the army supply made early in the summer and determined that about twenty-five thousand tons of the army reserve could be released in an emergency. This sugar was released through the United States sugar equalization board as the demand for it was felt, in several large lots, in spite of the anxieties expressed by many army officers. Had it not been for these releases from the army's stock to public use it is declared the public would have felt the shortage much sooner and the present shortage would have been considerably more acute than it actually is.

Is Regarded as Important.

This development is regarded as important here in view of the recent attempts to lay on the shoulders of the war department the blame for the present high cost of living. Through publicity emanating from the partisan congressional war investigating committees it has been charged that the secretary of war and the selling force of the war department had deliberately connived to boost the living cost.

From information coming from the office of the director of army sales in France and also from the Parker selling commission in Paris it is evident that any sales made in France were made on a purely commercial basis with the purpose of driving the best commercial bargain possible in getting rid of surplus war material on the other side that could not have been practicably brought back to this country.

Much Army Stuff Sold.

The sales department of the army has got rid to date of approximately a billion dollars worth of surplus war material that the army never would have use for under peace time circumstances. On these sales it has realized a recovery of about 75 per cent of the original cost of the material, estimated as an extremely high percentage of recovery. The Hare commission, which has also been the subject of partisan attack, went to France and has thus far succeded in making some excellent arrangements for the sale of surplus war materials for which there was no market on this side. This commission has been principally engaged in finding a market 'n industrially reviving Europe for materials chiefly of an industrial character, such as cotton linters, machine tools and other articles which had been produced in this country to continue the war emergency production scale and build it to its maximum efficiency. With the country reverting to a peace time industrial basis it was found that American industrial plants were already overstocked with the equipment authorized for sale abroad. This commission was specially instructed not to sell any staples that could be used in this country as a help toward driving down the cost of living.

Material in France Sold.

The Parker commission in Paris, under the direction of Judge Alton B. Parker, was assigned to dispose of the docts, manufacturers, storage plants and equipment and supplies of the American army in Europe. It is estimated that about $150,000,000 worth of material was disposed of in smaller lots and about $50,000,000 worth of supplies in Belgium were sold to Belgium. Then an arrangement was made with the French government for the sale of the remaining stock in a bulk lot at a price of $400,000,000. To arrange this sale it was required by the French interests that all remaining supplies be included in the sale, so that it was impracticable to take out the small quantities of staples that might at that time have been brought back to the United States, for there was considerable objection on the part of the French to taking our supplies off from our hands at all, and there was an internal commercial fight in France over the purchase of these supplies. It is believed, however, that a fairly successful arrangement was made through this sale to the French government.

There remains in the army surplus approximately a billion dollars worth of material and equipment of various characters, a great quantity of it raw material that will have to go through production before it is ready for use or consumption. Through the release of this material and through disposal abroad of material for which there was no market on this side, production has been stimplated in this country, making the labor market firmer and thus avoiding a great area of unemployment, which was predicted for this country but never materialized through the demobilization of the armed forces.

LARGE ENROLLMENT LOOKED FOR IN M. U. SHORT COURSE

More Than 12,000 Letters Mailed Out; No Danger of Overcrowding Agriculture, Says Dean

Columbia, Mo., Oct. 22.—More than twelve thousand letters to former and prospective students in the Short Course in Agriculture in the University of Missouri have been mailed in the last few weeks by F. B. Mumford, dean of the College of Agriculture. The Short Course opens October 27, and, judging from letters now being received by Dean Mumford, the enrollment for the term, which lasts from October 27 to February 27, will be the biggest in the history of university short terms.

Just before the war more than four hundred men were trained in the College of Agriculture at Columbia and sent back to Missouri farms. Three thousand former students of the Short Course now engaged in agricultural pursuits attest to the value of the course. It is hoped to reach the pre-war maximum and surpass it next year, and present prospects are bright for the consummation of this aim.

"More than 100,000 young farmers between the ages of 19 and 22 in the state of Missouri," said Dean Mumford today, "must have a greater training in their profession than their fathers did or they will not keep up in the race. Half of the work of the Short Course is to convince them of this fact and the other half is to provide adequate facilities for training them.

"The Short Course has a possible future that no branch of the university can boast. There is a possibility, not so far remote, that the other professions may become overcrowded, but it is inconceivable that such should be the case in agriculture."

Will Be Supreme Judge, If—.

St. Louis, Oct. 22.—If Washington University will accept his resignation as dean of the Department of Law, former Judge Richard L. Goode will accept the appointment which Governor Gardner has tendered him to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Supreme Court Judge Bond. Prior to receiving word of his appointment to the supreme bench, Chancellor Hall of the university said today, Judge Goode had been asked by the university to remain three years after he reaches the retirement age of 65. Judg Goode is now 64.

When a Farmer Quits Work

Where does he go? What does he do? How does he live? Well, the retired farmers have their own little Paradise, says and there they spend their days basking in the sunshine watering the lawn, dodging the real-estate highbinders, eating at the cafeterias, boosting the climate. Farmers, stockmen, dairymen—thousands of them pack the old bankroll into the old jitney each year and hike for Paradise.

The COUNTRY GENTLEMAN

Freeman Tilden has lately been there for THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN, and, with his humorous spectacles on, he has watched the retired farmers at work and play. He has written several articles which will be run as a series. At the same time there will start another great new series, "Doing His Best with What He's Got"—real stories of farmers who are successful in a small way—and happy in a great way. The first article of each of these series will appear in the issue of THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN that will come to you next week, if you send me, with your name and address, one dollar for a whole year's subscription—52 big, vitally helpful issues—and send it TODAY.

Everybody Wants to See It

And you should be among those present when "JIM SHARP" demonstrates the Hummer Sharpener at my store the week of OCT. 20 to 25

JIM will make a few cutting remarks about keeping farm tools in best working condition. He is a keen man, is Jim Sharp, and he will be busy. But he'll be here six days, and will have plenty of time to show you.

Jim says, "a dull farmer blames his tools, but a good farmer sharpens them" (on a Hummer).

So come in during the week and see what a great time and trouble saver the Hummer really is.

STATE OFFICIALS CONSIDER BONUSES FOR MO. SOLDIERS

Senator Urges Special Session of the Legislature; Governor Gives Matter Much Thought

Jefferson City, Oct. 23.—Governor Gardner has received a letter from State Senator Mark a McGruder of Sedalia urging him to call a special session of the legislature for taking effective action toward giving the Missourians who served their government during the war, bonuses for the time they were in the service. The governor said he had not given the question of calling a special session any consideration up to the present time, but he added that he had given the subject of bonuses much consideration.

In his letter McGruder referred to the constitutional bar against issuing bonds for more than $250,000 as an emergency measure and said that the only way for providing suitable bonuses would be through the submission of a proper measure to the voters of the state. He had reference to the submission of a constitutional amendment.

"Too Many Millions."

Wallace Reid has the part to which he is best suited in his latest Paramount Picture, "Too Many Millions," which will be shown at the Empire theatre tonight. As Walsingham Van Dorn, he is first shown as a poor young man trying to make a living selling books. Then comes a bolt from the blue. Two wealthy skinflint uncles are suddenly killed in a motor accident and Walsingham finds himself the possessor of a cool forty millions of dollars by the terms of their will.

The cool forty millions, however, make things warm for Walsingham. In the first place a beautiful young woman, Miss Desiree Lane, shows up and tells him that two millions of the money belongs to her, that his uncles robbed her father of it and caused his death. The next thing to happen is the discovery that Van Dorn's confidential agent, Wilkins, has fled with the forty millions.

Taking the girl, Van Dorn goes in pursuit of him in a motor car. They stop for gasoline and while they are at the garage officers take the car away from them. He and Desiree go to a nearby inn for the night and they barely escape with their lives. Then Van Dorn and Desiree marry and the bridegroom takes a job in the garage to pay for the gasoline.

They like the life so well that they live on in the little village quite happily for two years with no money except what Van Dorn earns. Then Wilkins unexpectedly returns and offers to return the forty millions of money, but they hesitate to take it. What would you have done?

Skidmore for Good Roads.

Skidmore, Mo., Oct. 22.—The latest good roads development in tsis vicinity is a project for building a pavement down across the county line into Holt., going directly south to the Eureka corner. This, it is said, can be accomplished by the co-operation of the town with the farmers who live on each side of the road and who own land for half a mile back. Probably two organizations will be found necessary, one for each county. A number of our most prominent citizens are tackling the problem, the solution of which means much to the town of Skidmore.—St. Joseph News-Press.

No Hole in Fall Doughnuts.

Chicago, Oct. 23. — Fall styles of pies, cakes and doughnuts were on display here yesterday at the annual convention of the National Bakers' Association. The new doughtnuts showed a distinctive departure from that food preparation around which many quips and comparisons have been built. There is no hole. Instead, according to the bakers, the inside of the doughtnut is taken up with filling, intending to add nutrition to the old style fried cake. The bakers today predicted a return to war bread, with substitution of potato flour for wheat flour, and numerous other substitutions to save sugar and eggs.

Hospitals May Buy U. S. Food.

St. Louis, Oct. 23.—Announcement has been made at the office of the zone supply officer of the army that charitable institutions in the St. Louis zone, comprising Missouri, Arkansas, Kansas and Oklahoma, can purchase from the war department's retail stores in St. Louis foodstuffs recently placed on sale by the government, at ten per cent less than the price quoted to other customers, the government to pay all freight cnarges. Hospitals and charitable institutions purchasing such foods must send a guarantee that the goods are for their own use.

New York Publications to Resume.

Meeting Talks Industrial Problems.

St. Joseph, Oct. 23.—Plans for encouragement of industrial development in the state of Missouri were discussed at a conference of representatives of industries from all sections of the state here today. The conference was held under the auspices of the Associated Industries of Missouri in conjunction with the Commerce Club of St. Joseph. Considerable time was given to discussion of the industrial outlook in the state and problems facing industrial interests in the post-war economical readiustment. Among those scheduled to speak were Albert J. Davis, president of the Associated Industries, C. A. Battreall of St. Joseph and Conrad H. Mann of Kansas City.

Damage Suit to St. Joseph.

A damage suit against the Burlington and Director General Hines brought by Martha Belle Morton for $10,000 for the death of her husband, William E. Morton, was transferred to the federal court today from the circuit court of Nodaway county on the motion of the railroad company. Morton was struck by a train while crossing the Burlington tracks near Maryville July 20, last.—St. Joseph News-Press.

COMPOSER DRIVEN TO DEATH BY GERMANS

Author of "Internationale" a Suicide in Military Hospital at Lille.

The tragic death of Adolphe Degeyter, the composer of the "Internationale," who passed away at Lille during the German occupation, has just become known to the city.

Degeyter, a man of strong character, laborious workingman, had written several songs which he and his brother-in-law used to sing.

He made no pretension to being a musician, but took great pleasure in playing the bugle.

It was on this instrument that he played the famous air which he wrote to the words of Eugene Pottier's hymn, and the first time he sang it was to some of his comrades in a cabaret at Lille.

Then his wife died. His brother went to Paris and passed himself off as the author of the famous air.

The two misfortunes worked disastrously on Degeyter's mind. He began to drink heavily and conceived for all music a dislike so strong that he would leave a cafe if anyone began to sing or to play some musical instrument.

Then the Germans came. Degeyter suffered acutely from having to work for them on the town water supply. When the typhus epidemic spread he was ordered to report at the military hospital, and one day he failed to present himself. The "kommandantur" issued a warrant for his arrest. In the evening he hanged himself.

He is buried in the cemetery near the hill, where a little wooden cross with the name "Adolphe Degeyter" marks the grave of the author of the "Internationale."

Build 834 New Freight Cars a Day.

Eight hundred and thirty-four new freight cars a day are being placed in service by the railroad administration, and every effort is being made to relieve the shortage occasioned by the movement of fall crops and reviving business, according to Director General Hines.

30,000 Germans to Leave for Mexico.

Thirty thousand emigrants are preparing to leave Germany for Mexico, according to Arthur von Magnus, representative of the German government, who is investigating Mexican labor conditions which would affect these newcomers.

Sold Car and "Made Up" With Wife.

Because his wife testified that her husband used his automobile for joy rides with other women, Wardner Simpson of Milwaukee, Wis., was told by the court to sell the car and "make up" with his wife. He did.
